The carnival spirit is in charge up in Automobileville. Anticipating the carnival by a few days, the Fair-weather Club, of which George J. Scott is president, is going to have a dinner at the Hotel Cumberland the night of April 1. "Eddie" Pidgeon, of the New Circle Theatre, will arrange a programme for the entertainmen while they dine, in which will appear Clifford Wiley, Benjamin Hapgood Constable Constable Co

Just 500 of These Dainty Lingerie Princess Dresses.

$10.50

Under ordinary conditions you could hardly buy the material for the price, let alone the making.

A manufacturer who employs only skilled dressmakers---a man noted for the beauty of his housegowns, wrappers, kimonos, matinees and lingerie dresses --- came to us and urgently solicited an order on a basis we could not resist---was willing to make 500 dresses if we would let him take his own time --- making them according to his own models. We chose several of the higher-priced models. They'll be ready for you to-morrow-

Three of the styles as illustrated—of sheer batiste in light blue, pink, helio, biscuit and white. These dresses are daintily trimmed with Val. lace and embroidery running the full length of the gown, square vokes of Val. lace, threequarter sleeve; full-flounced { skirt, finished with Val. lace and tucks. You'll positively wonder how they could ever be made for the price. Your dressmaker couldn't afford to make them alone for this money. While they last—spe-

Advance Sale of New 1908

AST June we held a similar sale, and it was the talk of New York for months afterward. Hundreds who remember that sale have asked when we were going to repeat the event.

As a rule the manufacturer holds his surplus and sample stock until the season is almost over, but this year conditions were such that he was willing to sell early on a basis that enables us to duplicate those extraordinary values of very nearly one year ago.

The lot represents the entire sample line and surplus stock of the best and biggest parasol manufacturer and
